Sunset on the Sea

Sometimes you get lost in all the activity of the hunt. There's a lot to do when you want to put in quality fishing time. Prepping rods, baiting hooks, watching graphs, plotting; not to mention the sea stories and good-natured ribbing between mates. And just when it's all done and the lines are wet; you turn around and boom! You realize as you gaze at one of the most incredible sunrises you've ever seen; this is what it's all about.
